

Test Case Format

Test case description: Checkout Page

Input: Payment information and items in cart

Condition or function under test: To view current items in cart, input payment info, and successfully purchase selected items.

Expected Output: A “success” message is displayed. Items from cart disappear and are added to orders.

Output: Not built yet, can’t properly test output